iv. ACTION ITEMS

1. Rescue Squad-Comments, Questions, Concerns

Supervisor Kasten asked how many times in the past have we have not been able to staff the service and it was said that 2 times in the last 8 months they did not have enough staff to take a call. Kasten suggested to possibly share with Coleman to fill hours and it was mentioned that Twin Bridge service has sufficient coverage on their service. Autumn Mansfield was present for an interview, but also works with Coleman and Twin Bridge and the board had questions for her on the operating budgets of those 2 services and what they spend on payroll. There were also questions about Lifequest and raising the charge per call, $1100 is the average call charge in this area and the Brazeau Ambulance is charging $850. Medicaid and Medicare payments were also talked about.
